

Business - Credit Card Application

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR APPLYING FOR A LOAN

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person or business that opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, if applicable, and other information that will allow us to identify you.

We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Married Applicants may apply for a separate account.

You promise that everything you have stated in this application is correct to the best of your knowledge and that the above information is a complete listing of what you owe. If there are any important changes you will notify us in writing immediately. You authorize the Credit Union to obtain credit reports in connection with this application for credit and for any update, increase, renewal, extension or collection of the credit received. You understand that the Credit Union will rely on the information in this application and your credit report to make its decision. You agree that requested documentation that accompanies this application is complete and correct and that it's incorporated as part of this application. If you request, the Credit Union will tell you the name and address of any credit bureau from which it received a credit report on you. It is a federal crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information on loan applications made to federal credit unions or state chartered credit unions insured by NCUA.

The person(s) signing the application is/are indeed authorized to act on behalf of the borrower. Borrower, co-applicant(s), and guarantor(s), as appropriate grants to the credit union the authority to use reasonable means to verify application information by requesting credit bureau reports, accessing information about borrower, co-applicant(s), and guarantor(s), as appropriate from other third party information providers, and other means if applicable. Borrower further grants to credit union the right to share this information with third parties as reasonable in the normal course of doing commercial lending including sharing this information with a third party for purposes of underwriting the loan. Borrower agrees to pay any fees charged by the credit union for processing this application and other related expenses whether the application is approved or denied. You promise that the credit you are applying for is for a business purpose. By signing below or by using your card, you understand that either of those actions will constitute acknowledgment of receipt and agreement to the terms of the credit card agreement and disclosures.
